

HONORS OPPORTUNITY

The School of Transborder Studies promotes academic excellence and social change by developing cutting-edge interdisciplinary knowledge regarding the populations of the U.S.-Mexico transborder space and beyond. Our aim is to affect social change by developing and nurturing integrated transborder scholarship and teaching, leading to more prosperous and sustainable transborder communities. We strive to affect transborder policy and social practice to promote individual, group, and regional prosperity in a globalized world.

Undergraduate Programs

The Bachelor of Arts in Transborder Chicana/o and Latina/o Studies (TCLS) is an interdisciplinary degree program that provides students with an understanding of how Mexican-origin, Chicana/o and Latina/o populations in the United States are influenced by, and also negotiate, political, social, cultural, institutional, and linguistic borders.
