1. How can virtual Barrett students (students who choose to stay home due to COVID-19) get involved in Barrett opportunities?
   Check the Barrett events calendar (https://barretthonors.asu.edu/events), Honors Digest, and Barrett social media accounts for upcoming events and opportunities.

2. How do we get in contact with the people running the Sun Devil Mock Trial Debates?
   For information about mock trial, please email sundevilmocktrial@gmail.com. For information about Regents’ Cup, (the yearly storytelling and debate competition between ASU, UA and NAU Vice Dean Foote referred to in her remarks), please email Dr. Jenny Brian (Jennifer.brian@asu.edu). For information about Ethics Bowl, a team competition where teams come up with solutions to current in-the-news ethical dilemmas, please email Dr. Jenny Brian (Jennifer.brian@asu.edu). All three competitions are fun, collaborative team events that develop critical thinking, persuasive argumentation and public speaking skills.

3. How should we meet other students and faculty, and attend new organizations (such as sports) with the COVID physical distancing requirements?
   Attending virtual events, faculty office hours, and by signing up for student organizations via SunDevilSync (https://asu.campuslabs.com/engage)

4. How can I find out more about clubs and organizations on campus?
   Visit SunDevilSync to learn about the 1000+ clubs at ASU https://asu.campuslabs.com/engage. You can even filter by the “Barrett” category to see honors-specific organizations.

5. Should we email our professors to ask if we are in person or online at first starting Thursday?
   For example, my class on Thursday is a hybrid class, so would it be in person that day, or online?
   Please email your professor to confirm the attendance structure.

6. If science labs don’t begin until next week, there will be no class held this week then right? We won’t have a Zoom call or anything?
   Classes start Thursday Aug. 20th and if you do not have class that day your first meeting will be the next week.

7. Can we attend classes, join organizations and clubs, and participate in events 100% virtually this fall semester? Even if you have housing on-campus?
   You certainly can! Just like classes, most of our events and student organization meetings will be hosted either entirely online or at least have a virtual component. You can find out more about events at https://barretthonors.asu.edu/events and student organizations on SunDevilSync https://asu.campuslabs.com/engage

8. Where can we find more information on the collaboration between the east coast honors college and the JEN Certificate?
   Contact Associate Dean Olga Davis Olga.Davis@asu.edu

9. What is the other honors college Barrett is partnering in?
   MacCauley Honors College City University of New York.

10. When should we start submitting requests for Honors contracts? And what kind of projects can we do while completing a contract?
You can start submitting them on Aug. 20th. See: https://barretthonors.asu.edu/academics/honors-courses-and-contracts/honors-enrichment-contracts

11. Are there specific classes that cover the honor credits? What do we need to do for those classes?
   You can do honors contracts or honors sections for credit. Set up Barrett Advising to learn more: https://bass.barrett.asu.edu/apps/barrett/advising/index.cfm

12. Is Hon171 one or two semesters?
   It is a two semester course and you will take HON 272 in Spring 2021.

13. How would you recommend connecting with/feeling like we’re apart of the Barrett community if we’re not living on campus this semester due to coronavirus concerns?
   There are a variety of activities and events happening that can help you get connected, as well as resources to support you during your transition to college. You will definitely want to pay attention to the Barrett Digest, which comes out daily and lists upcoming events, as well as the calendar on our website (https://barretthonors.asu.edu/news-events/upcoming-events). Should you need additional support in getting connected, we have provided contact information below for staff who can assist you with getting connected to resources and your transition to college:

   Tempe: Dr. Dawn Rendell, Assistant Dean of Students, 480-965-2836, dawn.rendell@asu.edu
   Polytechnic: Amy Sever, Director-Staff Operations, 480-727-0639, amy.sever@asu.edu
   Downtown: Kira Gatewood, Director-Staff Operations, 602-496-1296, Kira.Gatewood@asu.edu
   West: Sasha Billbe, Program Coordinator, Sr., 602-543-6118, Sasha.Billbe@asu.edu

14. Is there a requirement to stay in the Barrett dorms for a year?
   Barrett students are typically required to live in Barrett housing for their first two years. Given the current situation with COVID-19, many more students than usual applied for exemptions to live at home, and these were granted due to the transition to ASU Sync. Next year, students would be expected to fulfill the 2nd year of their housing requirement, whether or not they live on campus this year. If you have further questions, please feel free to contact the Assistant Dean of Students, Dr. Dawn Rendell, at dawn.rendell@asu.edu.

15. Will we have the same Barrett advisor all 4 years?
   Yes, we hope this will be the case.

16. Is there a place this semester where off campus students can go between classes to work since some classes are online and some are in person?
   The ASU Library, Memorial Union, and Honors Hall in Barrett complex. There will also be extra outdoor furniture on campus when the weather cools off a bit.

17. How can we find our financial aid advisor?
   You can set up a virtual appointment with them here: https://outlook.office365.com/owa/calendar/FASS@arizonastateu.onmicrosoft.com/bookings/s/wAWo1aCArk-7wGE5su7IOQ2

18. Is there a virtual club fair or something similar where we can explore the clubs and organizations?
   Yes! Engage is a virtual involvement fair happening on Wednesday, August 19th from 7-9pm (Event link: http://links.asu.edu/engage) You can also access club information on SunDevilSync any time: https://asu.campuslabs.com/engage
19. Is there a list of all organizations and groups available at ASU?
   Visit SunDevilSync to learn about the 1000+ clubs at ASU https://asu.campuslabs.com/engage. You can even filter by the “Barrett” category to see honors-specific organizations.

20. How can we get involved with the Saturday service?
   Check out the upcoming Service Saturdays on the Barrett events calendar at https://barretthonors.asu.edu/events or reach out directly to Cathy.Gutierrez@asu.edu for more information.

21. How do we create a honors project in a class? Do we just ask them what project to do for the contract?
   You can ask the professor and create a project of your own. See our Honors Enrichment Contract page here: https://barretthonors.asu.edu/academics/honors-courses-and-contracts/honors-enrichment-contracts

22. How will honors contracts work for classes that are ASU Sync Only?
   You can still do contracts and meet on the phone or Zoom to talk about your project.
   https://barretthonors.asu.edu/academics/honors-courses-and-contracts/honors-enrichment-contracts

23. Can student living off still campus use Barrett facilities?
   Absolutely! As a Barrett student, you have access to all Barrett facilities, regardless of where you live, with the exception of residential floors. Please note that, specifically at Tempe, there may be specific gates with which you will access to complex.

24. How many Honors courses can you take per semesters?
   We recommend 6-9 honors credits each semester.

25. When will we meet with our advisor?
   You can meet them anytime now! Set up advising here:
   https://bass.barrett.asu.edu/apps/barrett/advising/index.cfm

26. How many honors credits should we try getting each semester?
   6-9 honors credits each term is recommended.
