Opportunity for sponsorship of undergraduate research

Be a part of something phenomenal at Barrett, The Honors College. The annual Celebrating Honors Symposium, at which graduating seniors showcase their research and creative work to the community, features some of the most accomplished and visionary scholars to graduate from Arizona State University. Support this signature Barrett event and honor the achievements of our graduates.

Six years ago, 30 students participated in the symposium. Last year, 137 students representing all four campuses and 63 different majors showcased their work. Sponsoring student research of the sort featured at this event is an important way for you or your organization to positively impact Barrett students and their exceptional work.

“This is one of the most wonderful days of the year for Barrett because it combines the genius and creativity of our students.”
