In the summer of 2016 Barrett, the Honors College will offer a remarkable study abroad opportunity—three weeks of on-line instruction followed by three weeks’ residence in London, England, one of Europe’s great cities and the world’s top tourist attraction. Each participating student will take two upper-level Honors courses, one on Shakespeare and his world, the other on British history, literature and art from 1800 to the present.

Anticipated course-related field trips include:
- Westminster Abbey
- The reconstructed Globe Theatre, to see world-class productions of Shakespeare plays
- Backstage tour of the Globe
- The British Museum, the Tate Gallery, the National Portrait Gallery
- The Keats House
- The Tower of London
- The Imperial War Museum
- A walking tour of Dickens’ and Shakespeare’s London

...and more

Tentative dates:
May 16th, 2016-June 2d, 2016  On-line instruction. Students may participate from anywhere.
June 3d- June 24th, 2016  Program continues in London.

Estimated program fee is $6,200. Fee should be finalized by mid-October 2015. Program fee includes: tuition, ASU fees, international health insurance, housing in London, intracity transportation by bus and subway, and course-related field-trips. Not included in fee: airfare to and from London, food, and books. Scholarships (awarded on the basis of need plus merit) will be available. Barrett students of all majors are encouraged to take part. Participants will earn six hours of upper-level Honors credit as well as General Studies credit in Humanities.
If you wish to receive further information about the program as soon as it’s available, please e-mail Dr. Stanford at Stanford@asu.edu.